

- b. A Levite
- c. A Samaritan
- 4. The Samaritan acted. Why is this so significant?
 - a. Centuries of hostility between the Samaritans and Jews. Hostility goes back to Old Testament times.
- 5. Prepaid for 24 days worth of lodging (“two denarii”)
- 6. Ultimate question: which of the three was a neighbor to the beaten man?

III. LESSONS/SPIRITUAL & LIFE APPLICATIONS/QUESTIONS

- A. We should have a definitely concern about eternal life, but eternal life is partly predicated on how we live NOW.

- B. Who are the people in your “neighborhood?”
- C. We should not ignore those things right in front of us.
- D. When is the last time you checked your own level of bigotry and discrimination?
- E. Sometimes your greatest help will come from the least likely of sources. Conversely, the people who you might expect to help you, and should help you, may not help you.
- F. Godly love is not “talk” but “action.”
- G. How are you at extending mercy?
